

Jesus Dies

“When He had received the drink, Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, He bowed his Head and gave up His spirit.”

John 19:30

When Jesus died hanging on the cross, His friends were very sad. It was a very important moment because it shows that Jesus completed His mission to save us by dying for our sins. After Jesus died, His friends placed Him in a tomb and mourned for Him. It was a time of great sadness. They did not understand why Jesus had to die, but they knew that He had loved them very much.

What did Jesus mean when He said, “It is finished”?

Jesus meant that everything He came to do was completed. This includes His mission to save people from their sins by taking the consequences of the whole world's sins on Himself, even though He never sinned. This means that the work of salvation was accomplished, and there was nothing left to do to make things right between God and humanity. Jesus's sacrifice on the cross paid the price for our sins once and for all, and now we can have a close relationship with God because of what He did.

Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you for Jesus. When we think about Jesus saying, "It is finished," we are filled with gratitude and awe. We are reminded of the immense love and sacrifice that Jesus showed us by giving His life on the cross. Help us to find comfort in knowing Jesus loves us so much that He gave His life for us so that we could be free from the consequences our sin and have eternal relationship with You.

In Jesus' Name we pray. Amen.
